The Southern train from the north is running about six hours behind schedule time.

Mr. W. Pickens Roof is home from Newberry to spend the holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Roof.

It is bad policy to attempt to drown sorrow in a bottle of whiskey, for you will discover that sorrow is an expert swimmer.

Wanted to buy, a good young and gentle work mare. Apply to S. M. Wessinger, Countsville, Lexington, S. C.

There will be preaching in St. Stephen's Evangelical Lutheran church next Sunday evening by the Rev. J. G. Graichen.

We regret to learn that the 15 year-old son of our old friend, Mr. W. W. Fulmer of Saluda township is very sick with pneumonia.

J. P. Rowe, who lives in the Chinquepin section, a worthy and trusted colored man, was here Friday and paid for his paper.

The patients of Dr. James Harman as well as those needing dental work are informed that he will not be in his office next Friday.

D. S. Sheppard, an honorable and respectable colored citizen of the Pine Ridge section called in Saturday and renewed his subscription.

Cadet Carl Roof of the South Carolina Military Academy, at Charleston, is spending the Christmas holidays with his parents in this place.

Mr. Isaiah Lindler has resigned as postmaster at Peters, and Mrs. Hannah Lindler, wife of Mr. James Lindler, has been appointed in his stead.

Our readers who are interested in furniture and housefurnishing goods are advised to consult Maxwell & Taylor, Columbia, before purchasing.

Mr. D. J. Roof, from near Columbia, was in town Friday selling cotton and transacting other business. He came in and paid his subscription.

Mr. N. M. Derrick, one of the best farmers on Broad River, was in town Saturday and called in and settled his subscription together with those of several neighbors.

Please remember that you can always find at the Bazaar the very best plain and fancy candies, cakes and crackers, fruits etc., at the lowest prices.

The marriage of Mr. Walter Caughman and Miss Hattie Corley will take place in St. Stephen's church Thursday December 25th at 7 o'clock p. m. Everybody is cordially invited.

Our old friend Jacob W. Dreher, Esq., was in town Saturday selling cotton and transacting other business. He gave us a pleasant call and we enjoyed his company very much.

If you feel ill and need a pill Why not purchase the best? DeWitt's Early Risers Are little surprises, Take out—they do the rest.

W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., writes—I have used Little Early Risers Pills in my family for constipation, sick headache, etc. To their use I am indebted for the health of my family. J. E. Kaufmann.

Burglars entered the post office at Eaterburg Saturday night, and after drilling into the safe and exploding a charge of dynamite became frightened and left after securing what cash there was in the drawer, amounting to a few dollars.

Cousin Lizzie Harman, after spending several weeks pleasantly with her nieces in the Fork, is now visiting at the home of this editor to enjoy the Christmas festivities. She carried us in her arms in our infancy and without her presence we would think we had no Christmas.

When you visit Columbia be sure to call on Wm. Platt and see his pretty line of dry goods, millinery and notions. These goods are the best manufactured and their superior quality makes them the cheapest in the end to buy. At this store the quality of no article is allowed to be misrepresented in order to effect a sale, the purchaser can, therefore, feel assured that they are getting full value for their money.

The time for paying taxes without the penalty will expire tomorrow week and yet up to this time not one half of the taxes have been paid. There will have to be some quick work done between now and January 1st or else many taxpayers will have to pay the penalty for their negligence.

Don't forget the old man with the fish on his back.

For nearly thirty years he has been traveling around the world, and is still traveling, bringing health and comfort wherever he goes.

To the consumptive he brings the strength and flesh he so much needs.

To all weak and sickly children he gives rich and strengthening food.

To thin and pale persons he gives new firm flesh and rich red blood.

Children who first saw the old man with the fish are now grown up and have children of their own.

He stands for Scott's Emulsion of pure cod liver oil—a delightful food and a natural tonic for children, for old folks and for all who need flesh and strength.
